Protests in accordance with ACU rules to the secretary of the meeting

Since the riders in most of the classes chose varying routes I have just listed the scores in order without trying to decide a winner

Thanks to all the riders for coming and especially for sticking to the narrow path around the edge of the fields across the stream. I think the farmer will be very happy with that

As usual a huge thanks to all our observers. For once we had more than enough, must be the fine weather

Our next trial is at Hartland on the 30th of June. This is the Martyn Lockett Memorial Trial and as always at this venue it will be a good'un, although as it is not a championship round this year it is planned to be easier than usual

Hope to see you all there
